YWCA CANBERRA ARANDA APRIL SCHOOL HOLIDAY PROGRAM

Was it the Chicken or the Egg that came first?

Its Easter! Let's ponder this together at our April School Holiday program as we explore the themes of lifecycles and symbolisms of renewal and transformation in Australia and other parts of the world. Along with Easter, we will explore South-Eastern Asian countries New Years and themes of new life through water. We will explore the theme and the importance of water through fun art and science experiments, including the waterways that weave through our beautiful country and the importance of its conservation and protecting our Australian wildlife.

Mon 14	Toonworld Education, In House Workshop from 9:30am: Channel your creativity and imagination through a Stop Motion Animation workshop. Children will manipulate and play with modeling clay and engage with technology to design and edit animation. Enjoy fun activities learning about the different LIFEYCLES that surround us every day.
Tue 15	It's all about WATER as we explore the significance and versatility of water through art and science, not just bringing life to country but to other cultures around the world.
Wed 16	Learn about the Australian BILBY and help be a part of its conservation as it slowly declines to the brink of extinction and as a result many other native, endangered species in Australia.
Thu 17	Limelight Cinemas Tuggeranong Excursion - Minecraft PG: The movie is about four misfits that go on a journey to master the cubic wonderland and using their imagination, embark on a quest to travel back home. Children will enjoy a popcorn and water combo at the session. Please arrive at the service no later than 10am. As EASTER is just around the corner, we will have fun creating EGG-CELLENT craft to give to our friends and family over the holidays.
Good Friday and Easter Monday - PUBLIC HOLIDAY - Service Closed
Tue 22	In commemoration of ANZAC day, the children will make beautiful wreaths to remember our veterans and service personnel as their memories live on.
Wed 23	War Memorial Excursion: Enriching our understanding and knowledge about ANZAC day and exploring themes of bravery, sacrifice and living memory of our service men and women. Children will also be engaged with a Memorial Box at service that includes real and replica uniforms, equipment, artefacts, and more. Please arrive at the service no later than 10am. Cotter, Murrumbidgee, Molongolo do you know all the RIVERS in Ngunnawal country? Let's explore Australian waterways and create our own coffee-antiqued river maps.
Thu 24	In House Workshop from 10:30am: Larry Brandy an Aboriginal Storyteller will be visiting our program to share knowledge and culture about our Aboriginal culture and specifically the Australian native Animals including the Bilby. It's a MASTERCHEF challenge today creating scrumptious snacks using BUSH food. We will learn about the natural resources and elements of bush tucker and how to use them in our every-day cooking.
Anzac Day - PUBLIC HOLIDAY - Service Closed

SCHOOL HOLIDAY PROGRAM F&Q

What should I pack for my child?

Morning and afternoon tea will be provided. Please pack a healthy, nut-free lunch for your child. As our program includes outdoor and water play, ensure your child has spare clothes and a wide-brimmed hat. Sunscreen is provided, but if your child requires a specific type, please supply it. Additionally, pack any necessary medication to support individual medical action plans.

What is an In-House Workshop?

In-House Workshops involve external community stakeholders visiting our service to host experiences that enhance the holiday program and support children's learning.

Programmed Activities

Please note that planned activities, including excursions, may occasionally change. Any changes will be communicated as soon as possible.

Questions for Childcare Accounts

Will I receive Childcare Subsidy?

Eligible families will receive the Childcare Subsidy.
